Community Foundation for Greater Buffalo Adds Staff

BUFFALO, NY, October 20, 2009 – Betsy Constantine has joined the Community Foundation for Greater Buffalo as a gift planning officer.

Constantine brings extensive experience working in financial services to the Foundation having served as Vice President, Head of High Net Worth Communications for Lehman Brothers and as the Marketing Associate for Global Branding at Morgan Stanley, both in New York City. In her new role, she is working with individuals, families, and organizations—often with their professional advisors—to establish their charitable foundations within the Community Foundation. Constantine is a member of the Junior Group at the Albright Knox Art Gallery and holds a B.A. in economics from Franklin & Marshall College.

The Community Foundation for Greater Buffalo was established in 1919 to enhance and encourage long-term philanthropy in the Western New York community. The Foundation's mission is: Connecting people, ideas and resources to improve lives in Western New York.
